

Invitation to discussion on

Cuba's Changing Economic System Remains an Environmental Model

At

Pace University, New York City

Room: E321, Time: Saturday, 8th of June 10:00am-11:50am

Abstract: This workshop will provide an exchange with official representatives of the Cuban government. We will explain why the World Wildlife Fund has encalled Cuba's economic system the only environmentally sustainable one on the planet. The new economic policies being currently implemented, Cuba's international humanitarian aid, US-Cuban relations under Obama, the Case of the Cuban Five and Cuba's fight against U.S. terrorism. Democratic rights and human rights in Cuba will also be addressed.

Chair, Speakers: Stan Smith -- Chicago Committee to Free the Cuban 5, Ovidio Roque -- Cuban Mission to the United Nations, Jairo Rodriguez Hernandez -- attache, Cuban Mission to the United Nations, Arnold August, journalist and author of the new book Cuba and Its Neighbours: Democracy in Motion

Left Forum is the largest annual conference of the broad Left in the United States. Each spring thousands of conference participants come together to discuss pressing local, national and global issues; to better understand commonalities and differences, and alternatives to current predicaments; or to share ideas to help build social movements to transform the world.

This year's theme of Left Forum is "Mobilizing for Economical/Ecological transformation."

Speakers include Noam Chomsky, Oliver Stone and Bolivian Vice President Alvaro Garcia Linera

Click here to Register

 Please forward widely ****